AGREEMENT ON WITHHOLDING OF MEMBERSHIP FEE

CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY
UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT FUND

Union      Regional organization

On the basis of the agreement dated 13 January 1969 between the Confederation of Finnish Industry and Employers and the Central Organisation of Finnish Trade Unions and the respective national collective agreements, the below-mentioned employer and employee have today made the following agreement on the withholding of the trade union membership fee. The employer shall withhold the Finnish Construction Trade Union, local trade union branch and construction industry unemployment benefit fund membership fee from the employee's gross income according to the percentage mentioned in this agreement. The employer shall not be responsible for errors in information given by the employee, local trade union branch or Finnish Construction Trade Union. This agreement is in force from the beginning of the agreed first full withholding month until the termination of the employment or until the organizations mutually agree that the membership fee will no longer be withheld. Termination of the agreement by the employee comes into effect at the end of the following withholding month.
