

A MOMENT'S SILENCE

ON CONSTRUCTION
WORK SITES

28 April 2016, 12 noon

In 2015, thirteen builders died when at work.

On work sites,
many accidents
also take place,
of which too many
lead to permanent disability or incapacity to work.

The moment's silence on Finnish construction sites is arranged on the same days as the international employees' remembrance day, Workers' Memorial Day.

Through occupational health and safety cooperation, workplace accidents, fatalities and industrial diseases can be reduced. It is possible to improve workplace safety.

Through determined occupational health and safety cooperation, accident-free work sites can be achieved.